

JOIE DE VIVRE!

The Joy of French Wine

Friday February 18th (7:30 PM) will be a "French" Fry-Day at Berta's as we rediscover the delicious wines and tastes of France with Jeff Schecter

Wines that are not only new and interesting, extremely balanced and tasty but all of a sudden truly great values again!
Especially compared to what is coming out of California these days!

Chateau Lafont- Fourcat

100% Muscadelle; one of the oldest grape varieties in Bordeaux!

Henri Clerc Bourgogne Blanc "Les Riaux" 2009

As good as "simple" Burgundy gets, from a single outstanding vineyard.

Domaine du Pavillon Cote Roannaise 2009

Beaujolais is only 50 miles away, but a more different expression of Gamay can't be found.
This wine sells out fast in France so it is a rare pleasure to drink it in America.

Domaine Chofflet-Valdenaire Givry Rouge 2009

A stylish and superb Red Burgundy value made 100% from Pinot Noir from a dedicated grower.

Two Selections from Domaine de la Butte Bourqueil (Loire)

Jackie Blot produces intensely flavored red wines from Cabernet Franc and is an emerging superstar.

Le Pied de la Butte comes from the lower portion of the slope and offers generous black cherry
The rare and outstanding Le Haut de la Butte (from the highest part) is a deep and complex knock-out.

Domaine Paul Autard Chateauneuf-du-Pape 2006

This great wine has a dense and powerful finish which makes it our happy finish as well!
